The Banquet Last Night. At the Peabody hotel dancing-room, at ten 'clock last evening, some two hundred physicians and invited guests sat down to a re-past gotten up in the best style of culinary art by mine host Galloway, of the Peabody hotel. After a blessing by Rev. Charles C. Parsons, the delicious dishes were attended to, and were rendered more palatable by bottles of claret and champagne, which were everywhere within reach. Dr. Heber Jones presided with grace and dignity, and gave the regular toasts, as follows: THE TOASTS. "The City of Memphis," responded to by Mayor John R. Flippin.

"Tennessee State Medical Society," responded to by Dr. B. W. Avent.

"Shelby County Medical Society," respended to by Dr. E. Willett.

"Our Invited Guests," responded to by Dr. E. M. Wight. Harvey Mathes.

THE CIRQUE.

Van Amburgh's Big Circus and Menagerie.

The canvass was filled yesterday afternoon Last night it was packed, the crowd being estimated at three thousand. The circus presents many attractions, and the performance gave general satisfaction. It was the fifty cents admission that caught the people, and no one denied but what he had gotten his money's worth at the conclusion of the entertainment. The acts deserving especial mention are those of Master Charlie Watson, the bareback rider and contortionist; Sebastian, the premier bareback rider of the show and the iron jawed woman, who performed a wonderful feat of strength by lifting from the ground, with her teeth, a barrel filled with water. Many of the other attractions were very cleverly render-ed. On Monday afternoon, during the pro-gress of the concert, after the circus show had been concluded."Diabolo," the fire-king. was presented with a handsome gold-headed ebony cane. The presentation speech was made by Mr. Samuel Brady, manager of the concert troupe, and was responded to by "Diabolo," who was completely undone by the surprise which the present brought to him. On the cane, which was ordered of J. S. Wilkins, was inscribed: "Presented by the Members of Van Amburgh's Show to Diabole, King of Fire. M. C. Crane, W. DuCrow, Ed Smith, committee. Memphis, Tennessee, April 1, 1878." "Diabolo's" en-gagement with Van Amburgh closed after last night's performance, and he goes hence to join Burr Robbin's show, which starts on the road from Jonesville, Wisconsin, on the twentieth instant. The circus people left last night, en route for Brownsville and other

On Retiring from Duty. Make a Favorable Report of the Moral Condition of the Bartlett Community. and of the Various Departments.

To Hon. J. E. R. Bay, holding the Circuit Court at Bartlett: The grand jurors respectfully represent to your honor, that after a session of three weeks duration, we now have nothing further for our investigation, and if your honor or the attorney-general have nothing to sug-gest for our consideration, we ask to be discharged for the present term of the court. In making this request, we deem it proper to say that our investigation into all offenses against the law within the jurisdiction of this court has been as thorough and searching as our powers under the law would permit, and we are happy to say that we have found comparatively few indictments. In our opinion the country has not been so crderly, peaceful quiet and law-abiding since th late war. Even within the last twelve months there seems to have been a remarkable diminution in the amount of crime in the country, a fact upon which we congratulate the public. We have specially observed the improved conduct of the colored race, who seem more disposed to respect the law and become better citizens. Let them have every encour agement to do so. We have visited the county poorhouse, and it gives us pleasure to say that we do not think its management could be improved.

Dr. George K. Duncan furnished us every facility for a thorough examination into the past history as well as present management of the institution, and we do not heritate to say that the contrast is most gratifying, both as to the economy with which it is administered and the care and attention given the inmates. Dr. Duncan is not only striving to save dollars for the county, but cents, and he is succeeding. The record shows that, but a few years since, the institution was run at an annual expense averaging between twenty and thirty thousand dollars, when it contained an average of twenty-five per cent. fewer inmates than at present. This year, at the rate of the present quarter, the expense will not exceed eight thousand dollars. At present there are:

nsane colored females

No discrimination is made in the treatment of the white and colored inmates, and, as a consequence, no complaints are made. We find that no meat has been bought for the institution this year except beef, there having been enough pork raised on the premises to last till the first of September next. The superintendent reports that he now has on hand sixty fine hogs, forty of which will be killed for pork next winter. He also has five mules, eleven head of cattle and five milk cows, which furnish sufficient milk for the institution. He has on hand one hundred "The Press," responded to by Captain J. He has on hand one hundred barrels of corn, and hay and fodder sufficient for the stock on hand. Thus he is endeavoring to make this a self-sustaining institution, as far as it is practicable to do so. He gives it his constant and personal attention, and we cannot commend too highly his efforts in "Memphis City Hospital," responded to by its behalf, and the improvement he has made Or. G. B. Thornton.

Several irregular toasts were given and readd that Dr. Duncan is ably seconded in his sponded to in a pleasant manner.
